A vulnerability scan returned the following results for a web server that hosts multiple wiki sites:

Apache-HTTPD-cve-2014-023: Apache HTTPD: mod_cgid denial of service CVE-2014- Due to a flaw found in mog_cgid, a server using mod_cgid to host CGI scripts could be vulnerable to a DoS attack caused by a remote attacker who is exploiting a weakness in non-standard input, causing processes to hang indefinitely.

The security analyst has confirmed the server hosts standard CGI scripts for the wiki sites, does not have mod_cgid installed, is running Apache 2.2.22, and is not behind a WAF. The server is located in the DMZ, and the purpose of the server is to allow customers to add entries into a publicly accessible database.

Which of the following would be the MOST efficient way to address this finding?

- A. Document the finding as a false positive.
- B. Disable the HTTP service and use only HTTPS to access the server.
- C. Upgrade to the newest version of Apache.
- D. Place the server behind a WAF to prevent DoS attacks from occurring.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION: 3

Which of the following motivational theories explores two different managerial approaches: providing rigorous structure and supervision because employees are only working for financial reward versus providing an atmosphere conducive to dialogue, growth, and modification of structure because employees work not just for financial reward, but the betterment of themselves and others?

- A. McGregor X and Y Theory
- B. Maslow Hierarchy Theory
- C. McClelland Acquired Needs Theory
- D. Skinner Behavioral Theory
- E. Adams Equity Theory

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation: The McGregor X and Y Theory broke management up into two different styles, called X and Y for the study. McGregor concluded that the Xstyle manager is focused more on close supervision and control of employees, while the Ystyle manager seeks to create a rewarding work environment for all employees. McGregor's theory is based on Maslow Hierarchy Theory, but it achieves separate conclusions, so answer choice A is not correct.
